INCLUSION POLICY

Attention Deficit Disorders Uniting Parents (ADDUP) was set up to bring families together, to guide parents in the right direction to find the practical help they need for their children and to promote both public and professional awareness of ADHD. We value the input that we have from our staff and volunteers in delivering the high standard of service to our users

Addup values young people and children as being a vital part of the organisation and desires to see them grow, mature and be challenged in a healthy and safe environment.

Addup is an inclusive charity and we are committed to giving all children every opportunity to participate in Addup projects and activities, irrespective of ethnicity, disability, gender, socio-economic status or background.

Fee Waivers

Addup acknowledges that parents may at times experience financial hardship. In these circumstances Addup would consider reducing or waiving project fees.

Addup will support families to seek additional financial support via Pupil Premium or, once the family has been a member of Addup for a minimum of 6 months and the child has participated in our activities, to apply for Disability Living Allowance (DLA).
